

Hillside Football I

2008 Program Guide

The Facts:

53% of black males enrolled in North Carolina High Schools do not graduate

100% of Hillside football's class of 2007 graduated

28% of black males in the United States attend a college or university

67% of Hillside football's class of 2007 are in college

The Hillside football program builds men by attracting gifted student-athletes, insisting on academic excellence, and demanding sacrifice. From the classroom to the weightroom, nobody works harder than our young men.

Over the past two seasons, that hard work has been rewarded on the field with back-to-back conference co-championships, and a record of 21 wins with only 6 losses...

... more importantly, that dedication has translated into over 1 million dollars in college scholarships.

"As much as we enjoy winning football games, that is not our most important job as coaches. Our greatest challenge is to see these young men be successful in life"

Ray Harrison, Head Coach

The Fund:

The 1000 Hornets Fund allows Hillside Football to go above and beyond in providing our young men maximum opportunity to earn a college scholarship. The 1000 Hornets Fund will help defray costs for:

SAT and ACT prep classes

Trips to college camps

Academic advising and tutoring support

DVDs marketing each player

The Formula:

0% Administrative Costs

0% Salaries

100% Helping Youth Succeed

motivated kids + dedicated coaches = young men ready to lead
